NOVEMBER 2026

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL :

Dear St. Mary's Families,

This month reminds us about remembrance. All Saint's Day and All Soul's Day (Day of the Dead) help us know about those who have passed before us and how they impacted our lives. We can learn from them, honor and pray to them. Also we will gather for a memorial service to honor the millions of victims of the 1932–1933 Soviet-imposed famine-genocide in Ukraine. And on Nov 9 we will honor veterans and fallen service members by wearing a poppy and holding a Remembrance Day service.

We will be sharing about what the students are learning by sending out Progress Reports on Nov.20 followed by conferences with teachers on Wed. Nov.25 or Thurs. Nov.26. Keep encouraging your children that learning is an important part of each day. Our staff are here to serve them!

Blessings,
Mrs. Klemetski
